- (b) Temporary subdivision sign. Temporary subdivision signs shall be allowed to identify subdivisions where an active building and development program is underway. Such signs shall be non-illuminated wall or ground mounted and shall be allowed for a maximum legal effective period of not more than two years. Such signs shall be removed when the permit becomes void, or when 75 percent of the lots in the subdivision have been conveyed or had principal buildings erected on them. Subdivision development signs shall not exceed 32 square feet in sign area. Such signs shall be set back not less than 15 feet from any side property line and shall be no greater than ten feet in height. In such cases where the subdivision abuts more than one street, one such temporary subdivision sign may be erected on each street frontage.
